

July 2015

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
 ©www.dawn-roginski.com			1 /LI/ is for Library. Visit yours today! Make sure to get a Library card and check out any /LI/ books you will need this month.	2 With a grown up, practice writing your name with a sparkler!	3 /LI/ is for Lemonade. Let YOUR CHILD Make Lemonade for your picnic!	4 Independence Day Talk about the colors and shapes you see in the sky tonight!
5 Talk about the meaning of Independence Day! How is it like a birthday?	6 /LI/ is for Lego! Build a Lego tower with yeLLow bricks.	7 With your child, count all the change in your pocket, purse, or cup holder today. Ask your child what it will buy!	8 Happy Birthday Raffi! Sing "Down by the Bay" - find the rhymes like whale & tail.	9 /LI/ Is for Llama. Read "Is Your Mama A Llama?" Or any Llama book by A. Dewdney	10 /LI/ is for Lucky. Make a List of all the words that rhyme with Luck or Lucky!	11 /LI/ Is for Lightening. Talk about how Lightening and fireworks are alike and different.
12 Read any book that has Letters in it! (Or an alphabet book to talk about Letters.)	13 Have a Lemonade stand. Keep track of the cost of ingredients. Did you make a profit?	14 /LI/ is for lap. Read a bedtime story on a Lap.	15 Assign your child a chore to earn $1. Pay them in quarters and let them choose to save or spend!	16 /LI/ is for Lawn. Roll across the lawn 5 times . Are you dizzy?	17 /LI/ is for Laugh. Check out a joke book from the 800s. Ask a Librarian for help!	18 Happy Birthday Felicia Bond! Read "If You Give a Mouse a Cookie" or any "If You Give" story
19 /LI/ is for Light. Count how many Light bulbs are in your home.	20 /LI/ Is for lemons. Make a List of all the bakery you could bake with lemons. Look through a cookbook for help.	21 Together draw a picture of 4 dollar bills. Next to each $1, draw 4 quarters. Talk about how the amounts are =.	22 /LI/ Is for like. At dinner talk about all the foods everyone in the family likes and dislikes!	23 /LI/is for Laundry Basket. How many socks can you fit? Towels?	24 Read a story where Lily is the character (Hint: Lily's Purple Plastic Purse).	25 /LI/ is for Last. What is your Last name? Practice printing it!
26 National Parent's Day Play pretend anything today but do it together!	27 /LI/ is for Leap. Play Leap Frog. How many times can you and a partner go in a row. Count!	28 Allow your child to spend $1 at the dollar store. Let them handle the whole transaction!	29 /LI/ is for Lollipop. Guess how many Licks it takes to finish one. Now count as you eat one! Was your guess close?	30 Recite 3 Nursery Rhymes that have Little in them (kittens, Boy Blue, Miss Muffet)	31 /LI/ is for Love. What activities did you Love this month? Send me an email and let me know. I'd LOVE it!	Email Miss Dawn at: roginski@mccl.info